Appropriate to the Individual is the cut of the Hair: there can be no fixed or prevailing fachion without destroying almost universally the harmony of the four ensemble. Indeed as diverso at is the contour of the human head and facial outline, just sopeouliar should be the trim and arranges ment of the Hair. This fact is acted upon by only those Hair-Cutters who possess an inherent judgment in matters of tests, cultivated and inproved by increasant study and application. Of this rare class. Professor WHEELER, humbly claims to he one, and the Only One in this Colony, and he. madestly but confidently invites all who may he distructful of his ability to give him at least a trial before pronouncing an adverse opinion.
